

Romans 6

I am not under law, I'm under grace, as it tells me in His word;
It is grace that provides for me a place at the table of my Lord,
I am not under law, I'm under grace,
It is grace that rescued me,
It is grace that keeps me free,
I have sought, I have found a heavenly place,
I am not under law, I'm under grace.

Whether sin unto death, or righteousness, in obedience alway,
Know ye not that to whom yourselves ye yield, ye are His whom ye obey,
I am not under law, I'm under grace,
It is grace that rescued me,
It is grace that keeps me free,
I have sought, I have found a heavenly place,
I am not under law, I'm under grace.

Sin shall not have dominion over me, for in grace I shall abide,
And a servant of righteousness I'd be, since the Righteous for me died,
I am not under law, I'm under grace,
It is grace that rescued me,
It is grace that keeps me free,
I have sought, I have found a heavenly place,
I am not under law, I'm under grace.

For the wages of sin is death indeed, as tis written in His word,
But the gift of our God, eternal life, is through Jesus Christ, the Lord,
I am not under law, I'm under grace,
It is grace that rescued me,
It is grace that keeps me free,
I have sought, I have found a heavenly place,
I am not under law, I'm under grace.
