

We All Have Come Together

Once by nature we were dead in sin,
In a world of utter discord;
But together God has quickened us,
Raised us up to sit together with the Lord.
In Christ, we all have come together
To be with the saints in one accord;
One faith that we all share together
In the stature of the fullness of the Lord.

Now we know the purpose of our God,
Visible the mystery became:
Christ, the Church, together now we see,
And together put the enemy to shame.
In Christ, we all have come together
To be with the saints in one accord;
One faith that we all share together
In the stature of the fullness of the Lord.

In the Body we'll be fitly framed
Many members Christ can supply;
Working in the measure of each part,
All by growth in love, the Body to edify.
In Christ, we all have come together

To be with the saints in one accord;
One faith that we all share together
In the stature of the fullness of the Lord.

Now we're one, His purpose to fulfill,
As the one new man of His plan.
Unto Him be glory in the Church,
And in Jesus Christ forevermore, Amen!
In Christ, we all have come together
To be with the saints in one accord;
One faith that we all share together
In the stature of the fullness of the Lord.
