

Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus

O sinner, troubled and weary,
No light in the darkness you see,
There's light when we look to the Saviour,
And grace that's abundant and free.

Turn your eyes upon Jesus,
Rest fully in His wonderful grace,
Let the cares of this world trouble you not,
While you think of your heavenly place.

Through death into life everlasting,
He conquered, it's promised us too,
Our Blessed Hope soon approaches,
In the clouds meeting Him, me and you.

Turn your eyes upon Jesus,
Rest fully in His wonderful grace,
Let the cares of this world trouble you not,
While you think of your heavenly place.

He's blessed us with all spiritual blessings,
In heavenly places with Christ,
He's raised us up together,
Our hope heavenly being in Christ.

Turn your eyes upon Jesus,
Rest fully in His wonderful grace,
Let the cares of this world trouble you not,
While you think of your heavenly place.
